 - Changes to the regional collaborative services delivery and PUF funding
 - Budgeted operating revenue is 42.5M only down $20K from last year.
 - Current enrolment is 2555
 - Replacement of HAK in smokey lake will be completed winter of 2022
 - Nutrition programs continue, but may look a little different due to AHS restrictions
5. Principal's Report: Justin Gross
 - Main focus has been around safe re-entry to school
 - Cafeteria is open, serving simple lunches and snacks
 - Staffing update
 - Discussions have begun for opening up additional opportunities within school
 - Parent teacher interviews will be by phone or video
 - Photo day is October 23rd
 - September 30th is orange shirt day
6. Old Business
 - School start supplies recap: 36 families participated this year; 81 kits in total were purchased. 63 were mailed out to families, 18 were delivered to school.
7. New Business
 - Where does school council fit in this year?: no current volunteer opportunities, could change later on in year. Important avenue for information from Mr. Gross and

Ms. Bauer to parents and community. Exchange of ideas between parents and school and a way to share with the community.
